

Dynamic Performances & Programming for Vital Jewish Organizations

Who: Ross M. Levy has been a singer and songwriter of both Jewish and secular content since his early teen years. Ross holds a degree in Judaic Studies and is currently working as the Director of Student Life at the Jewish Community High School of Gratz College.

What: Ross has a style that is a refreshing mix of rock, folk and jazz. His music is original and contemporary and has been heralded by young and old alike. He has performed in many areas of the East Coast, appearing at congregations for special Shabbat and Havdalah services, song sessions at conclaves sponsored by NFTY and the URJ and at Bar/Bat Mitzvahs, weddings and other special occasions. He truly is Where the Future Lies.

Where: You can have Ross brighten up your event simply by contacting us through his website or via e-mail. We will be able to coordinate with your scheduling and work with you to make sure that the content of Ross' work fits seamlessly with your function. We know that having Ross M. Levy at your next special event will enhance your program, service or Artist-in-Residence weekend.

Why Not?: Contact us for booking, album, fees, and general information by clicking on the "Contact" page at www.rossmlevy.com, or via e-mail at ross@rossmlevy.com.
